SUBJECT: CODEL HICKENLOOPER, Mr. John Newhouse, Staff Consultant, Senate Foreign Relations Committee

REF : Deptel Paris 370 repeated by Paris to Bonn; Standing Instruction

The Embassy was first advised of Mr. Newhouse's visit by a telephone call from Paris on April 8. A subsequent check with Embassy Paris revealed that his interest was primarily commercial, and Commercial Officer Max E. Hodge was accordingly assigned as control officer.

Mr. Newhouse was met at Cologne Airport on the evening of April 9 and taken to the American Project Guest House. He spent April 10 at the Embassy in discussions with the Charge d'Affaires, Minister Counselor for Economic Affairs Cronk, and with other officers of the Economic and Political Sections. It developed that his interest was not commercial but political and economic aspects of the OECD, NATO and the EEC, for a report on the "Problems and Trends in Atlantic Partnership" which he is preparing for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He left by early plane for Brussels on April 11.

Mr. Newhouse pronounced himself very well satisfied with the Embassy's arrangements for his visit. To judge by his discussions, in most of which the reporting officer also participated, he was able to gather useful material for his report. As far as the Embassy is concerned, Mr. Newhouse was a very pleasant and undemanding visitor to care for.

Mr. Newhouse withdrew $50 or DM 400 in 19FT561 funds and returned DM 90.01 or $22.50 on his departure.
